

GERMANY

Opportunity Card

A legal pathway to live in Germany and search for employment opportunities.

No job offer required before applying

Quick eligibility overview

Qualification

Recognised degree or relevant vocational qualification route.

Language

German A1 or English B2, depending on your eligibility route.

Financial Proof

Approx. €13,092 for 12 months, commonly through a blocked account or accepted proof.

Financial Proof in Simple Words

You usually need to show enough funds to cover living costs in Germany. For 12 months, this is approximately €13,092, based on around €1,091 per month.

Best for people exploring a clear and legal Germany route.

What Can You Do on the Opportunity Card?

Key benefits and general information

- Stay in Germany for up to 12 months to search for suitable employment.
- Attend interviews and explore job opportunities in your professional field.
- Work part-time while searching for your main skilled job.
- After securing eligible employment, move towards the next work residence route.

Documents Usually Required

- Passport
- CV in English or German
- Language certificate
- Visa application form
- Degree and transcripts
- Experience letters
- Financial proof or blocked account
- Photos and supporting documents

Important: Qualification recognition matters

Your degree or qualification may need to be checked for Germany before preparing the final visa file.

Need Personal Assessment?

General information is helpful, but your degree, language level, finances, experience and goals need personal review.

Book a Consultation with Inam Khan (Inam Stori)

Founder & CEO, EduFly Consultants

UK-Based International Education, Immigration
& Global Mobility Consultant

In the paid consultation, we can review:

- Eligibility assessment
- Degree and qualification recognition
- Language and financial requirements
- Application roadmap
- Job search and relocation planning

Book Consultation

cal.com/inamstori

Tap the link in the PDF or scan the QR code.

Contact EduFly Team

+92 311 3998861

For booking support and next steps.

Learn More About Inam Khan
inamstori.com